Wednesday, May 9, 2012 • Posted May 10, 2012

Blanco's own Jerry and Deanna Dosser will debut their new CD, Western Sunday, on May 12. They will be holding a CD release party at the Uptown Blanco Restaurant Courtyard. The new CD is devoted to the sound of country gospel music and features some of the couple's favorite songs and hymns.

The Dossers recorded the compilation of songs at Los Senderos Studios in Blanco. Their first CD, Victory, was recorded with their group Blanco Canyon Gospel and released in April 2010.

Jerry and Deanna travel with their music under the name Western Sonrise Ministries. They share the love of Jesus Christ through gospel music and testimony, all done with a western flair. You will find them traveling across the state of Texas singing at churches, revivals, camp meetings, retreats, and festivals. The Dossers appear next at Henly Baptist on May 13 and then May 20 at The First Cowboy Church of Burnet. On June 10, Western Sonrise Ministries will present their brand of country gospel music at the Blanco Lavender Festival at 10am in Bendseil Park.

If you have a place for them at your next event give them a call at 830-554-0006 or contact them through their website at www.westernsonrise.com.
